Board Okays Third Year For Tech U. At Soo

LANSING (AP) — The State Board of Education Wednesday voted to allow a third year in three subjects at the Sault Ste. Marie branch of Michigan Technological University.

It also voted to appoint a special committee to study the future of the college and to report back Jan. 1. Both votes were unanimous.

The vote, on what was termed a compromise proposal, came after the board rejected, 5-3, a motion that the Soo branch be allowed to expand to a four-year college.

Voting for a four-year branch immediately were Dr. Leon Fill of Detroit, author of the motion; the Rev. Charles Morton of Detroit and Carmen Delliquadri of Houghton. Opposed were Donald Thurber of Detroit, Marilyn Jean Kelly of Albion, Thomas Brennan of Detroit, Dr. Peter Oppewall of Grand Rapids and Dr. Edwin Novak of Flint.

The legislature will be notified immediately that the board has approved a third year of courses in medical technology, biological sciences and business administration at the current two-year branch.

It was estimated this would cost between $26,000 and $27,000.

Fill argued that a four-year college could be instituted at the Soo with little capital outlay.

Thurber, among the objectors, said further study was needed because members of the board could not agree on basic figures on the expected Michigan college enrollment potential.

Strike Cuts Off Denmark's Beer

COPENHAGEN, Denmark (AP) — You can still get a beer in Denmark — but it isn't easy.

The Scandinavian nation today entered the 11th day of a strike by its 6,000 brewery workers with no end in sight. Which makes the foamy brew the chief topic of conversation in a nation of 4.5 million people who normally drink 3.5 million bottles a day.

You can get a beer in just a few places. One inn outside Copenhagen will serve you two but no more. In another, you can drink as much as you want — if you can find a seat at the bar.

The owners of these places were clever enough to hoard thousands of bottles in the week before the strike started May 2. One of them has enough beer for three weeks.

Other bars sell foreign beer at relatively high prices because they import it privately.

A private plane travels back and forth daily between southern Denmark and Lubeck, in north Germany, bringing beer to thirsty Danes who gladly pay 150 per cent more than the usual price.

If a Dane can't get beer, he'll even drink milk. The dairies gleefully report an increase of 10 per cent in sales, and there's even an occasional shortage.

Queen To Unveil Kennedy Memorial

LONDON (AP) — Queen Elizabeth II will unveil Friday Britain's memorial to John F. Kennedy at historic Runnymede where 750 years ago the barons forced King John to sign the Magna Carta.

The memorial stands on hallowed ground. Britain's present-day personal and political freedoms are based on the Magna Carta.

Runnymede, a low-lying meadowland beside the River Thames, is 21 miles west of London.

The queen will dedicate the memorial as the president's widow and the two Kennedy children, Caroline, 7, and John F. Jr., 4, look on.

A London newspaper, the Sun, said that when someone in the United States said to Mrs. Kennedy that surely she would not be taking the children to London, she replied:

"Why not? This is a solemn occasion and I want them to share it."

Irish Band Plays

Included on the guest list for the unveiling are Sens. Robert F. and Edward M. Kennedy, and their sisters, Mrs. Peter Lawford and Mrs. Stephen Smith.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk — who arrived in London Wednesday to attend the ministerial meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization — will represent President Johnson.

The ceremonies will begin at 1 p. m. with a musical program played by the band of the Irish Guards.

The queen — accompanied by her husband, Prince Philip — will arrive at 2 p. m. and be met by Mrs. Kennedy. They will then walk across the grass, through a wicket gate and up a path to the memorial, a block of Portland stone on a granite plinth, a paved terrace and two symbolic stone seats for contemplation.

The stone bears these words of Kennedy at his inauguration: "Let every nation know that we shall pay any price, bear any burden, support any friend or oppose any foe, to assure the survival, and success of liberty."

Student Fund Planned

The British government and individual Britons hope to raise $2.8 million for the John F. Kennedy Memorial Fund. It now totals $2.38 million.

Income from the fund is expected to send 10 British students to the United States each year for study at Harvard, Radcliffe or Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The chief speakers at the ceremony will be former Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, 71, at whose Sussex residence Kennedy stayed when he visited Britain in June, 1963; Prime Minister Harold Wilson; the queen, and Rusk.

The ceremony will end at 2:40 p. m. with the playing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" followed by "God Save the Queen."

As the guests file away, the pipes and drums of the Irish Guards will play "Flowers of the Forest."

Mrs. Kennedy, with Caroline and John, will then journey to Windsor Castle to have tea with the queen. Other members of the Kennedy family also have been invited.

Mindful that 67 amendments remain to be considered by the word-weary senators, Dirksen ventured that before the measure is finally acted upon: "We will commune with the Halloween witches, eat our Thanksgiving turkey and trim our Christmas trees here."

The Senate refused Tuesday, by a four-vote margin, to accept an outright ban on poll taxes.

Four states — Texas, Virginia, Mississippi and Alabama — require their voters to pay the taxes in state and local elections. The poll tax was outlawed for federal elections by the 24th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution.

'Kissing Lane' Street Missing

RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — The city of Richmond has lost a street.

During a check on the history of a right of way Wednesday it was discovered the city has only 2,599 streets instead of 2,600.

The missing street is Kissing Lane.

Chalkley DuVal, assistant works director, promises to locate it.

Five Arraigned In Detroit For Postal Thefts

DETROIT (AP) — Four women and one man were arraigned Wednesday in connection with what police said was a series of Detroit area post office burglaries netting an estimated $409,000 loot.

Postal inspectors, who conducted a four-month investigation of the burglaries, said about $300,000 in blank money orders stamps, travelers checks and cash had been recovered.

Arraigned Wednesday on charges of possession of stolen federal goods were Rita Lobuno, 25; Alice Green, 26, and Betty Stamps, 24, all of Detroit; Mrs. Mary Jane Line, 32, of Brighton, and Edgar E. Lane, 36, of Ann Arbor.

U.S. District Court Judge Fred W. Kaess set examination for June 9. The women were released on personal bond. Lane was held in lieu of $5,000 bond.

Three other men, arrested after police tear gas grenades forced them out of suburban Hazel Park City Hall Tuesday night, stood mute at their arraignment Wednesday before Hazel Park Municipal Judge Joseph A. Agnello.

Dominican Dispute Nears Settlement

Juice-Making Wins Michigan Product Prize

LANSING (AP) — A Paw Paw man who started as a mortician and switched to operating a fruit juice company has won Michigan's 1965 "Agricultural Development of the Year" award for a new juice-making process.

The award, presented in connection with Michigan Week, went to Andrew F. Murch for a process credited with improving the farm economy in Southwest Michigan.

The judges said Murch's process not only has brought greater returns to growers for their fruit, but "should contribute substantially to the continued expansion of markets for Michigan fruit products."

Gov. George Romney will present a plaque to Murch and to the winner of the Product of the Year award, which is yet to be decided, at a joint session of the legislature next Wednesday.

The process eliminates the use of costly presses. Judges said it results in more juice from a given amount of fruit, fewer man hours, better quality, easier and better sanitation, less filter cake, lower investment costs, savings in space in production area and lower utility costs.

Murch put the process into full scale operation last year, when his A. F. Murch Co. shipped three million cases of fruit juice products.

Region 2 of the Upper Peninsula (Delta, Marquette, Alger, Schoolcraft, Menominee and Iron counties) nominated for agricultural product of the year Saykly's maple syrup fudge, which uses Upper Peninsula butter, cream and maple syrup in the creation of a delectable candy.

Upper Peninsula 4-H clubs sold 6,000 pounds of the fudge this spring to introduce it to the Upper Peninsula public as a fine new item for gift shop and food store sales to visitors as a distinctively Upper Peninsula confection. Saykly developed the fudge in years of experimentation and with the counsel of the National Confectioners Assn. and from Michigan State University Extension.

Congo Signs Aid Pact With U.S.

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — The United States and the Congo signed a $15-million, 40-year economic aid agreement Wednesday night.

The pact was signed by Premier Moise Tshombe and U.S. Ambassador G. McMurtre Godley.

The loan will be used for purchase in America of trucks, replacement parts for heavy equipment, tires, textiles and pharmaceutical products.

Johnson Throws Down Gauntlet To Chinese Reds

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson said today the aim of Communist China "is to erode and discredit America's ability to help prevent Chinese domination over all of Asia," but "in this they shall never succeed."

Johnson threw down the gauntlet to the Red Chinese in a television-radio address on American efforts in Viet Nam. The President prepared his talk for a meeting with editorial cartoonists in the East Room of the White House.

Repeating his offer to engage in unconditional discussions designed to end the Viet Nam war, Johnson said this would "clearly be in the interest of North Viet Nam."

But he said "Communist China apparently desires the war to continue, whatever the cost to their allies."

"Their target is not merely South Viet Nam. It is Asia. Their objective is not the fulfillment of Vietnamese nationalism. It is to erode and discredit America's ability to prevent Chinese domination over all of Asia," Johnson said.

"In this they shall never succeed."

Politics Key Factor

Johnson began by saying "the war in Viet Nam has many faces"—the first being the face of armed conflict, terror and gunfire. In this connection, he said:

"The Communists in Viet Nam are slowly beginning to realize what they once scorned to believe: That we combine unlimited patience with unlimited resources in pursuit of an unwavering purpose."

The President summed up his determination by saying, "We will not abandon our commitment to South Viet Nam."

The second face of the war, he said, is the quest for a political solution.

"We know, as our adversaries should also know, there is no purely military solution in sight for either side," he said. "We are ready for unconditional discussions."

Human Needs First

Johnson said "the third face of war in Viet Nam, is, at once, the most tragic and the most hopeful." He said it represents human need and the effort to develop the Vietnamese economy.

"People must fight for something," he said. "The people of South Viet Nam must know that after the long, brutal journey through the dark tunnel of conflict there breaks the light of a happier life. Only if this is so can they be expected to sustain the enduring will for continued strife."

Emphasizing that phase of his thinking, Johnson devoted the bulk of his address to members of the Association of American Editorial Cartoonists to present projects and future proposals for helping South Viet Nam develop its economy and care for its people.

The President again suggested that the United States will extend its aid programs into Communist North Viet Nam once peace is achieved.

Peace Hinges On Firing Key Junta Officers

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (AP) — A spokesman for the Dominican rebels indicated Wednesday that a settlement with the rival military-civilian junta may be near. But he held out for dismissal of some leading military men backing the junta.

"There's every reason to hope we are near a settlement," said the rebel foreign minister, Jotin Cury. He spoke after a conference between Col. Francisco Caamano Deno, the rebel leader, and two members of the peace commission of the Organization of American States, Ricardo C. Colombo of Argentina and Carlos Garcia Bauer of Guatemala.

Coalition Ruled Out

Cury added that a peaceful solution depends on the dismissal of some key officers backing the junta. The rebels' chief target is Brig. Gen. Elias Wessin y Wessin, who led the resistance to the revolt.

Six of eight high-ranking officers removed by the junta in a peace move arrived in Puerto Rico aboard a Dominican navy frigate. But Caamano said previously their dismissal was not enough to satisfy him.

Latin-American diplomatic circles in Washington reported a broadly based interim government embracing both government and rebel leaders may be in sight. But Cury, speaking to newsmen, ruled out a coalition government.

He said, "Our objective is the restoration of the constitution," and that acceptance of a coalition "with elements from the other side would be a repudiation of constitutional objectives for which we have fought."

Cury said the junta has no legitimacy or popular support "except that extended by the U.S. military."

Sniping Reported

Caamano told a news conference he would ask OAS permission to establish a corridor through the U.S. lines surrounding the rebel stronghold in downtown Santo Domingo.

U.S. Marines and paratroopers encircled the downtown area last week, and many armed rebels were cut off in northern sections of the city.

Caamano said he would go to the OAS with charges that U.S. paratroopers were sniping from vantage points across the Ozama River. He said one sharpshooter killed 22 Dominicans from a perch atop a grain silo overlooking downtown streets.

He also called on the OAS to make an urgent on the spot investigation to prove or disprove U.S. charges that Communists have control or major influence over his movement.

He added that he would accept the establishment of an inter-American police force in the Dominican Republic — a key element in moving toward a solution.

In New York, the U.N. Security Council sought a compromise as the council neared a decision on a Soviet complaint of U.S. armed interference in the Dominican Republic. But it appeared that a majority could not be mustered for any definite action by the council.

One person was reported killed and three others injured Wednesday night during a demonstration in Buenos Aires, Argentina, protesting U.S. intervention in the Dominican Republic.

KNOWN IN PENINSULA

LANSING (AP) — John Barlow Martin President Johnson's special envoy in the Dominican Republic, has ties with Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

During several summer vacations at Lake Michigamme, Martin wrote several human interest stories that appeared in magazines.

He also toured the region, collecting material for a non-fiction book about Upper Michigan which was published under the title, "They Call It North Country."

Martin was an Indianapolis newspaper man at the time.

Daughter, 19, Held In Theft Of $400,000 From Father

GREENVILLE, S.C. (AP) — Charged with stealing $400,000 from her father at her mother's bidding, the brilliant daughter of a wealthy Greenville manufacturer is fighting extradition to South Carolina.

Mary Jane Hollingsworth Farrell, 19, whose IQ is 183, surrendered to authorities in Miami, Fla., Wednesday but refused to waive extradition.

Mrs. Farrell, a graduate of the University of Miami at the age of 16, is charged with house-breaking and grand larceny in the tangled case.

Solicitor (prosecutor) B.O. Thomason Jr. said the total amount taken from an executive restroom at the John D. Hollingsworth plant April 6, 1964, was around $400,000 but "may reach $550,000." None of it has been recovered.

Her mother, Eula Bennett Hollingsworth, is charged with housebreaking, grand larceny and conspiracy. She is free on $15,000 bond and is in a Greenville hospital listed only as a "medical patient."

Both women were implicated

Mary Jane Farrell

in the theft by Jeffrey Bruce Farrell, 21, in Greenville General Sessions Court Monday. He pleaded guilty to the theft and received a five-year prison term, suspended to four years probation.

Italy Outlaws Slot Machines

ROME (AP) — Parliament has outlawed all slot machines of chance. It ordered fines up to $72 and prison sentences of one month to two years for violators.

Parliamentary action Wednesday night followed a public outcry over the case of a desperate young married man who went to police with the story that in one year of "compulsive gambling" on the machines he had lost his savings of several thousand dollars, his wife, his home and his car.

Fight Shoplifting:

Merchants Arm Against Thefts

Shoplifting is costly to merchants and their customers and embarrassing to everyone concerned — particularly to those who are caught and prosecuted.

The loss to merchants is more than two billion dollars annually. This loss is passed on to the customers in higher prices.

There are no social levels in which shoplifters are not found. They come from all walks of life.

These and other facts about shoplifting are being presented this week in "Shoplifting Clinics" at the Chamber of Commerce Building for the benefit of retailers.

The last of clinics in the series will be presented on Friday at 10 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. and interested persons are welcome, said Walter Lewke, Chamber secretary-manager.

The theme of the clinics is that shoplifting can be controlled and that merchants can reduce their profit loss.

Ask Prosecution
Under Public Act 182, adopted by the legislature in 1958, the merchant is protected in his efforts to detect and apprehend the shoplifter. Through the Chamber placards showing protection under the Act are distributed to cooperating merchants.

The merchant can detain the shoplifter for questioning under the Act, but it is suggested at the clinic that this be done by asking the individual to accompany the merchant to a place of privacy in the store.

"Go ahead and prosecute. This will discourage the repeat offender," the merchants are advised.

The records of the court are public records and results in the information being made available for publication.

Best Protection
A motion picture that alerted proprietors and sales people to the methods of the professional shoplifter was screened. The professional can make off with goods valued at $100 a day. Sometimes the thieves work in pairs.

Suspected by the alert sales clerk are persons who carry big shopping bags, wear rain capes in fair weather, tote boxes around the store with them, and garb themselves in loosely fitting coats and dresses beneath which goods may be secreted.

"One out of every 60 customers who enters a store will try to steal something," the merchants are advised. To accomplish their purpose the shoplifter must have the merchandise to steal and the privacy to take it.

Best protection for the merchant is a staff of sales people alert and courteous, who quickly acknowledge and serve all of the customers. Sales will be increased and shoplifting will be decreased.

"I'll be with you in a moment" from the busy clerk means courtesy to the customer — and a warning to the shoplifter that he is being observed.

One project will seek to provide educational and vocational training for 150 culturally deprived people in the Mt. Pleasant area.

The project will primarily concentrate on Chippewa Indians who lack educational and job skills. The second program will be an extension of the job training center in Lansing, and is also a demonstration project that will provide a variety of services to the children and other members of the trainee's family.

Ambulance Plan Brings Response, Says Schwalbach

There has been good response to the City Ambulance Service plan for prepaid service, it is reported by James Schwalbach, owner-operator.

The plan offers one whole year of ambulance service for a family of five persons for a total of $2.

"This is not a down payment," said Schwalbach. "It's the total price for a service that now costs $15 minimum for each call."

The plan is being offered to everyone in the Delta County area that extends eastward to Ensign and 10,000 letters of invitations to subscribe to the plan have been mailed. To avoid misunderstanding, the information should be carefully read, Schwalbach advised.

City Ambulance Service seeks by this means to continue its operations. Efforts to obtain public financial aid through the city and county have been unsuccessful.

With Wolves Yet

It seems that whenever anyone from outside the Upper Peninsula writes about this section of the nation, he is courting disagreement. Perhaps this is because the Upper Peninsula is unique and defies comprehension by anyone who hasn't actually been a part of the Peninsula.

The latest example of this is an article entitled, simply, "Michigan's Upper Peninsula," which was written by Gene Caesar and appears in the June issue of Holiday magazine. Caesar is the author, among other things, of an excellent book about the carnivores, "The Wild Hunters," and his account of the Upper Peninsula is, for the most part, very well done. It will do much to publicize the Northern Peninsula.

But, almost inevitably, it contains errors that outsiders seem prone to commit whenever the Upper Peninsula is their topic. Some of them are minor errors. Thus, Brockway Mountain Drive is referred to in the article as Brockman Mountain Drive. This is a simple—and excusable—mistake.

Not so innocent, however, is Caesar's flat statement that "for the last 30 years, the tourist industry has been the U.P.'s biggest business." This completely ignores the important roles that wood industry and mining have played in the Upper Peninsula's economy.

Traditionally, logging has been considered the largest industry in terms of employees in the Upper Peninsula, followed by mining. In recent years, there has been a growth in the tourist industry, but whether it has overtaken logging and mining as "the U.P.'s biggest business" is debatable. And certainly the tourist industry hasn't been the biggest in the U.P. "for the last 30 years." During World War II years, travel was curtailed, but mining operated at full capacity in an attempt to meet wartime demands for raw materials.

It would be interesting to know how Caesar would support his contention that the tourist industry is this region's biggest. In terms of dollar volume of business? In terms of total employment? In terms of total payroll? The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron Co. recently announced that $40,000,000 will be spent by the company and its partners simply for expansion of the already existing Empire Mine. When has a like amount been spent in the Upper Peninsula for expansion of a tourist industry project?

Caesar also says "iron mining is termed 'marginal' here." If this is true, a "marginal" industry set an all-time record for shipments from Escanaba port this April. Iron mining must have been "marginal" in the Upper Peninsula ever since it began more than a century ago if Caesar is correct.

Far from being marginal, iron mining is reaching new heights on the Marquette Range, and we're sorry that Caesar didn't make a note of it in his essay, which is a colorful description of the unique state of nature in which the Upper Peninsula remains after the rest of the Midwest has been so populated, paved and polluted. He is fascinated by the timber wolves that survive in the Upper Peninsula and says that they give us the right to claim to offer a real wilderness when only Alaska and Canada and a few other areas can do it.

Somehow he missed Escanaba in his Upper Peninsula travels and it will be harder for some Deltons to forgive him for that than for reporting tarnish on our growing iron industry.

I.Q. Tests

"I.Q."—for Intelligence Quotient—has been such an accepted term in the language for so long that it may come as a surprise to learn that this old cow is not as sacred among educators as it once was.

The latest attack on the whole idea of I.Q. tests and national norms was made recently by Paul Diederich, research director of the Educational Testing Service in Princeton, N.J. He thinks they have caused parents and students needless anxiety and ought to be eliminated.

Contrary to popular belief, intelligence tests don't measure general intelligence or a person's inborn capacity to learn. They are useful only for predicting possible academic achievement.

Measuring him against a national intelligence norm only discourages the underprivileged child, says Diederich. "No matter what he does, his parents do, or his teachers do, he cannot possibly look good against more favored competition."

"Why do we need to know where he stands among all pupils of his age in America? His real competition lies in his own neighborhood."

The kids themselves, however, seem to have different ideas—at least those who took part in a just completed study by the Russell Sage Foundation into the social consequences of standardized ability testing.

A questionnaire survey of nearly 10,000 10th and 12th grade students in 59 schools across the country found that most of them think they are smarter than they actually are.

Private school boys thought they were brightest of all. Parochial students and girls were exceptions.

Call For Decency

President Johnson has launched a war on crime. He'll never win it unless he gets a lot more help from the public than law enforcement is getting now.

Crime is increasing in the United States five times faster than the population.

It is increasing not only in the cities but in the suburbs and rural areas as well.

Drug addiction is zooming to new heights.

Women—and men—are afraid to stroll in the parks or to walk or ride home from work at night for fear not only of being robbed but also brutally and senselessly beaten and even murdered.

Wolfpacks of teen-age punks roam big city streets, robbing, raping and perpetrating acts of savage violence just for "kicks." (Where are their parents?)

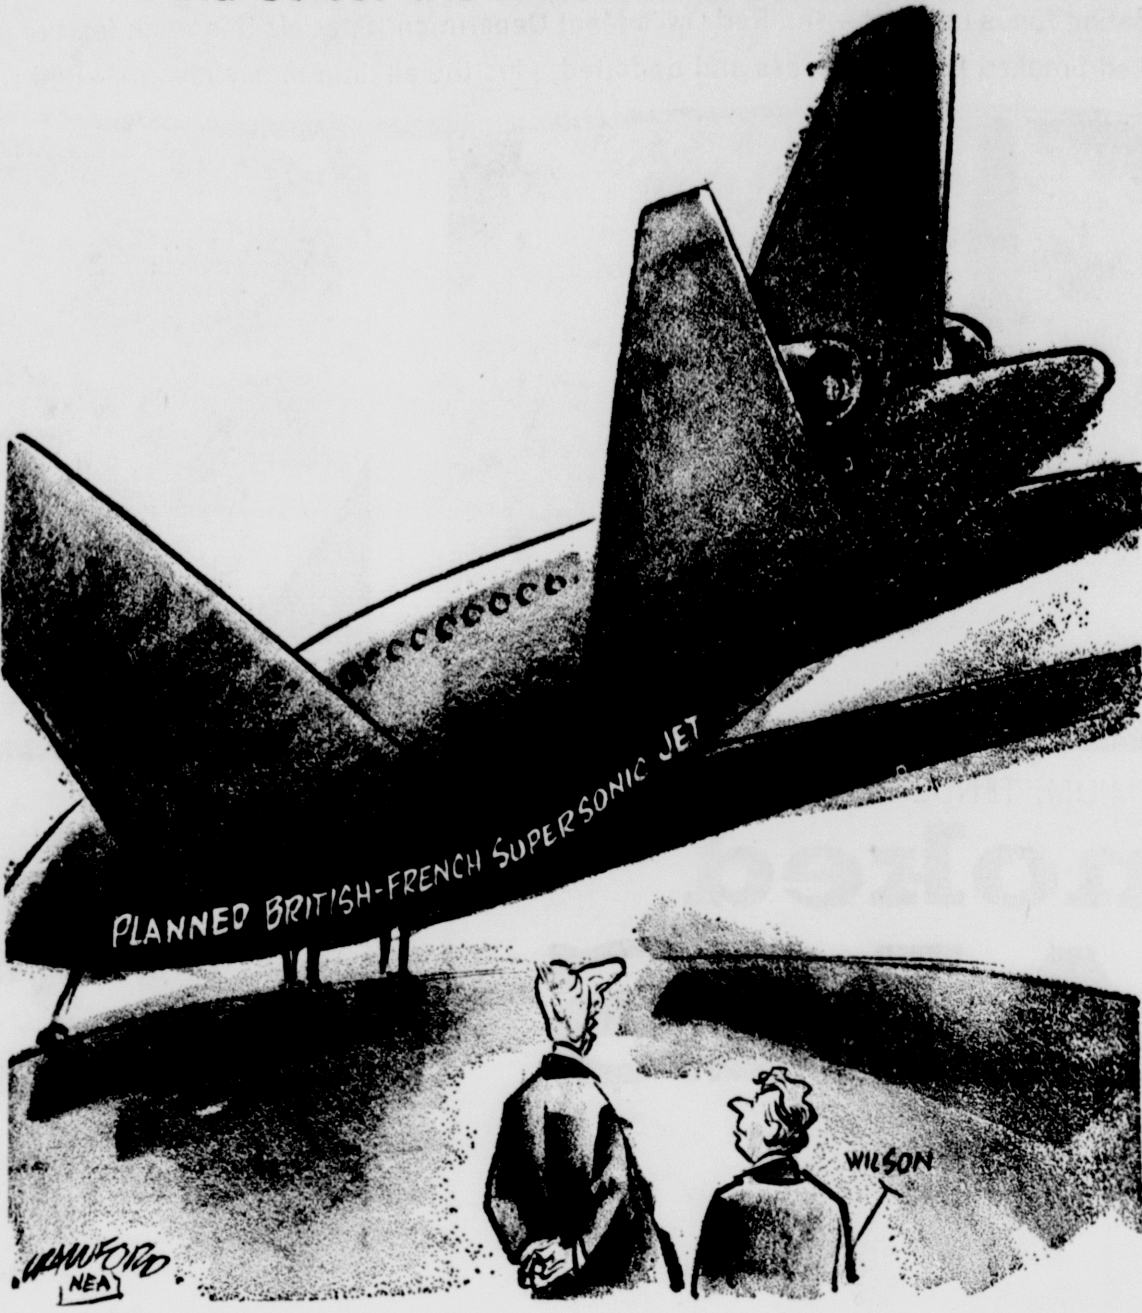

All this is happening in OUR America. And it is happening with a strange and frightening absence of shock and lack of resistance by the public.

It is as if the American people were sitting on the sidelines glumly watching the steady slide of their country into moral decadence and fighting it with a shrug and a yawn.

Who is to resist this paralysis of national decency, morality and ethics?

The clergy? Public officials on all levels of government? The media? Civic organizations? Parents? Of course. All of them—plus the individual citizen who isn't afraid to speak out in angry protest against what's happening to him, his family and his regard for the American way of life.

"Of Course, I'll Be the Pilot, Copilot, Navigator And Select the Movies to Be Shown!"

Quick Action

By RAY CROMLEY
WASHINGTON — (NEA) — United States military landings in the Dominican Republic are part of an overall quicker-reacting United States policy toward Communist moves in Latin America.

Faster, stronger reactions will be a pattern, whether the Reds move in the Caribbean or the continent.

The technique will vary. In The Dominican Republic it wasn't difficult to get the "in" group to invite United States forces. In some places, American troops won't be advisable. But for certain, the U. S. reaction will be fast.

U. S. officials hope an international Latin-American hemisphere fast-acting police force can be created. U. S. Forces would undoubtedly predominate. This group would move speedily to Red - threatened spots.

But whether or not the Latin countries agree to the use of force, Washington plans to act—with troops if necessary—whenever a similar crisis threatens.

The legal authority—the pronouncement by the Organization of American States that communism is incompatible with the American hemisphere system.

In part, this new policy is a result of U. S. experience in Cuba. The Castro take-over taught the difficulty of ousting a Communist dictator once he gets into power and sets up neighborhood secret police and informer systems.

Despite economic bungling and the presence outside Cuba of large anti-Castro refugee groups containing a fistful of Cuba's former top brain power, Castro is now believed more strongly entrenched than ever.

The Cuban exile military groups have folded for all practical purposes. Key U. S. diplomats believe their cause is hopeless, that invasion by Cuban refugees is out of the picture for the foreseeable future.

The United States government has even stopped funneling training and organizational funds to these military exile setups.

What's next? Colombia, Venezuela and Guatemala head the Red take-over target list, as of now. Communist guerrilla forces are active in all three countries.

Colombian Reds intermittently raid towns. They have held districts under their control for periods of time. The guerrillas in Guatemala seem to have been contained for the time being.

Duty-Free Liquor Limit Cut For Foreign Tourists

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee has approved legislation to sharply cut tourists' privileges of bringing in duty-free goods—especially liquor.

The committee included in the bill Tuesday President Johnson's proposal to reduce the amount of goods tourists can bring in from $100 wholesale value per person to $50 retail value.

The liquor restriction would limit to one quart the duty-free import, and it would apply only to persons over 21. At present, all members of a party—including infants—are entitled to bring in one gallon duty-free.

ing by government forces. The underground in Venezuela is not large, but vigorous. It has received small but important arms shipments from Cuba.

Had the Reds taken over the Dominican Republic, Haiti's very shaky government would certainly have fallen almost immediately. Two other shaky regimes are high on the Red target list—Honduras and Haiti.

Interestingly, the Dominican Republic was not on the top Communist priority list. It was a target of opportunity which came up suddenly. The Reds were able to move fast.

U. S. officials now think the time is ripe for strong action. Despite public Latin attacks on "Yankee imperialism," the thinking here is that there is a great underlying respect for U. S. motives, a strong fear of communism through most of Latin America and a real desire by many for the U. S. to take incisive leadership.

As the foreign minister of one of the major Latin American countries told an American ambassador:

"I wish you had moved in on Castro's Cuba militarily during the missile crisis. Because you didn't, you've left Castro able to operate safely in a sanctuary like the Yalu River, bordering Manchuria, was for the Chinese Reds in Korea."

"Of course, if you had moved in, I would have immediately gotten up and given a strong anti-American speech, condemning you for interfering in the internal affairs of a Latin American country."

"After the speech I would have opened a bottle of my best whisky and invited you over for a private victory celebration."

The Doctor Says:

You Need Healthy Feet

By Dr. Wayne G. Brandstadt

It has been said that, although a man may be as old as his arteries, he acts as old as his feet. This will strike you with added force if you try to see a fair or tour a city in one day.

Here are some ways you can insure foot comfort. Socks or stockings that are cotton or at least have cotton soles are best for absorbing perspiration. This helps to prevent burning and itching. They should be well-fitted because socks that are either too small or too large will cause trouble. A hole in the heel or the toe can also add to your misery.

When buying shoes you should fit your foot—not the prevailing style. Your shoes should have plenty of room for toes. Cramping your feet will cramp your style.

Walking shoes should have low or medium heels. Women's stiletto heels may be fine weapons, but they're tiresome to walk in. Women who insist on wearing them would do well to carry a pair of comfortable well-broken-in walking shoes with them.

The World's Fair, for example, is too big to be seen in one day, so don't try. You should alternate walking with periods of rest to get the most out of your excursion. If you are tired when you start out you should wait until a day when you feel like conquering the

SUCCESS

May we once again take this opportunity to express the gratitude of the Delta County Community Concert Association Board to all those who spent the week May 3-8 giving of their time and efforts in bringing to our membership files the largest number of individuals we have ever had.

The adult list is well over 500 and the student list is about 450. This, along with the earned memberships of the large group of representatives, will bring the auditorium to capacity for the four concerts.

We also wish to thank the other modes of spreading the cause of Community Concerts, such as WLST, WDBC, The Escanaba Daily Press, and the Delta Reporter, and to Bay De Noc Community College for their support in this fine arts activity. Without these and the individual efforts of the representatives, we would not have succeeded.

It promises to be another banner year for Delta County Community Concerts.

Conrad Beck, President
Delta County Community Concerts

(Editor's note: Success of the Delta County Community Concerts campaign means that music lovers in this area will be able to hear next season: The Indianapolis Symphony, the Revellers Quartet, Herschel Garber, tenor, and the Modern Arts Trio—piano, flute and viola.)

Bill Opposed By Blue Cross

LANSING (AP) — Michigan Blue Cross and Blue Shield representatives objected before a Senate committee Tuesday that several proposed bills would cost their subscribers at least $6 million a year, and perhaps several times that amount.

William McNary, Blue Cross president, said the bills, in addition to boosting costs, "would make a mockery" of efforts by the hospital service to safeguard health standards for its 3.5 million members.

McNary voiced particular objections to a measure that would require Blue Cross to admit as a participating member any hospital certified for welfare cases by the State Health Department.

If the approximately 35 hospitals affected by the bill were given participating status, he said, the cost to Blue Cross subscribers would be "perhaps $6 million a year."

"This alone would require a 3 per cent Blue Cross rate increase," he said. "In addition the number of new hospitals that almost certainly would spring up might easily double or triple this cost."

Spokesmen for the Blues also argued against bills which would:

—Give podiatrists (specialists in foot ailments) the same status in hospitals as physicians.

—Permit a subscriber to take circuit court action against the two services and substitute public control for control by physicians.

Dr. Sidney Adler, Blue Shield president, said no corporation could function properly if its board were subject to "second guessing" by customers.

Adler said public members now constitute 40 per cent of the board of Blue Shield and should have a predominant role in controlling and supervising any medical care plan.

Ann Landers

Husband Fussy About Lunchbox

Dear Ann Landers: I am not trying to pass myself off as a perfect wife. I have my faults the same as anyone else. But I am not simple-minded and I do have my pride.

My husband is very fussy about what I pack for his lunch. I try to send him off every day with a bucket that is nourishing and tasty.

Several weeks ago I forgot to put mustard on his pastrami sandwiches and the way that man carried on you would have thought I had tried to poison him. Now he pulls the lunches apart and checks. Then I have to put everything back together and repack it.

He hasn't found anything to complain about since the mustard incident, but he keeps tearing up his lunches just to make me feel inferior. Of course I get mad and yell at him and he yells back and we start off everyday with a fight. How can this be stopped?—SUB-NORMAL

Dear S-N: Tell your husband you will write a list of everything you plan to put in his lunch bucket and that you will check it off as it goes in. Then he can look at the list and leave the lunch alone.

Some wives don't want to put a lunch together once, let alone twice. It is inconsiderate of him to double your work.

Dear Ann Landers: I am writing in regard to "Rattled Robert"—the boy whose father insists that he make business calls on the telephone. The boy is supposed to find the number and get the party on the line. Then his father comes to the phone. The boy said he hated to do it and asked you if it was fair. You said "Yes. It is fair, and it is also good training."

I am 14, too, and I know how this kid must feel. Foolish is the only word I can think of. I agree it might be good training but I don't think the man should train his son at the expense of business people. Also, if the boy can't think of anything to say the father should tell him—ANOTHER RATTLED TEEN-AGER

Dear Rattled One: Many adults, as well as teens, wrote to gripe about my advice. I even heard from a telephone company supervisor who said it was not "good manners" to impose children on business associates.

Sorry, friends, but a 14-year-old is no child. A 14-year-old should be able to say, "Good evening, Mr. Swanson. This is Robert Klienpell. I'm calling for my father. Will you hold on for just a moment, please?"

The father should take over instantly and not expect the boy to make small talk with Mr. Swanson. I should have made this point clear in my advice.

Dear Ann Landers: I never thought I'd have to write to you but my husband has a habit that is driving me to distraction.

Jake works the late shift. He leaves for work at 11:20 p.m. Every night as he walks out the door he says, "Bye, Honey. Go to bed."

Where else does he think I could go at that hour? Every time he says that dumb farewell I feel like knocking his head off. How can I get him to break the habit?—SCREAMING MIMI

Dear Mimi: You'll never get him to break the habit, but you can reduce your own irritability by having a different reply for him every night—and the nuttier the better.

When necking becomes petting, watch out! To learn how the smart girl keeps both her dignity and her boy friend, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far To Go," enclosing with your request 20c in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Buddy Poppies Going On Sale

Buddy Poppy Day in Escanaba is Friday, sponsored by the local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and with its goal the benefit of veterans and their families.

Mayor George Rusch has proclaimed the day one in which the public is asked to join in support of the fund campaign. The sale of the Buddy Poppies by the VFW is authorized by an act of Congress, the Mayor points out.

The major portion of the funds raised through the sales will be used in the local community, the remainder being utilized to help maintain the Veterans of Foreign Wars Home for veterans' orphans and widows at Eaton Rapids, Mich., and to insure the continued functioning of the organization's national rehabilitation and welfare service.

Wear a Buddy Poppy on Friday and support projects they finance, Mayor Rusch asked Escanaba citizens.

Escanaba Travel Agent Completes Hiawathian Tour

Mrs. Manfred (Maryann) Cerasoli, manager of World Wide Travel Service, Escanaba, recently returned from a 10-day travel agent's familiarization tour of Hawaii sponsored by United Air Lines.

Twenty travel agents from all over the country participated. The group spent four days in Honolulu, then toured the Outer Islands of the Hawaiian group, including Maui, Hawaii and Kauai.

Purpose of the trip was to better acquaint travel agents with tourist facilities on the islands.

"I would not recommend anyone to visit Hawaii without a visit to the outer islands," Mrs. Cerasoli commented. "If you do not have time to visit all or most of them, select at least an island or two. Here you will see Hawaiian life as we like to think of it... very happy people, friendly and singing everywhere."

Consolidation Plan For Iron County Schools Defeated

IRON RIVER — Voters of Iron County have rejected a proposal which would have consolidated six independent school districts into a single, county-wide school system. The vote was 2,934 to 2,169, a margin of 765 votes.

The proposal, approved by the State Commission on School Reorganization in February, was placed on the ballot by the Iron County School Reorganization Commission which was established under the 1964 school reorganization law.

Heavy votes against the proposal were recorded in the cities of Iron River and Crystal Falls. Only four precincts approved consolidation — Stambaugh city and township, Gastra and Bates Township.

Proponents of consolidation had argued that unification would provide the best method of achieving a superior education program in the county and would solve many of the pressing financial needs of the various school districts.

The vote was the first in the Upper Peninsula considering a consolidation program authorized by a school reorganization commission.

Memorial Day Events Planned

Preliminary plans for the observance of Memorial Day were outlined to the Escanaba Veterans Council by Council Commander Ken Thorbjornsen at a recent meeting in the Legion Club rooms.

The Legion will be host for the observance, with Commander Reynold Gustafson and Wilfred Doucette as co-chairmen.

As in former years all veterans will meet at the VFW Club at 7 a. m. and proceed to Holy Cross, Lakeview and Gardens of Rest cemeteries. Archie Wood, chaplain, and a firing squad will be in charge.

Parade units will assemble at 9:30 a. m. at the Junior High School and will march to the Karas Memorial Bandshell in Ludington Park. George Embs will be master of ceremonies.

The VFW Auxiliary will honor the Navy dead with services that include the casting of a wreath on the water.

Commander Thorbjornsen said the committee is in need of convertible autos for the parade and asked persons to donate them by calling ST6-7678.

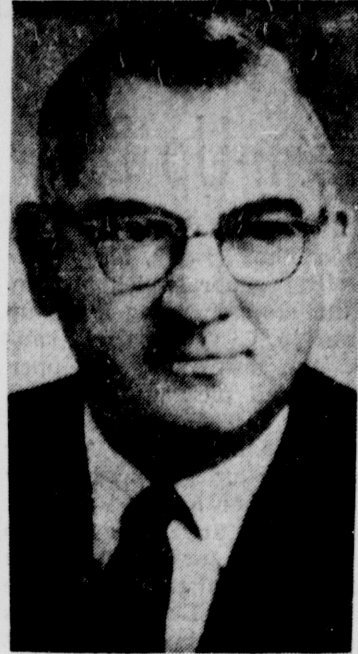

Organizations and units wishing to participate in the parade are also asked to call the same number. Final plans are expected to be announced next week.

Elly Peterson To Speak At Dinner

Mrs. Elly Peterson of Charlotte, Michigan Republican chairman and former assistant national Republican chairman, will be speaker at a spring dinner of Republicans at The Terrace at 6:30 p. m. Friday, May 21, announces Arthur Neiman, Delta County Republican chairman.

Mrs. Peterson was the GOP nominee for U. S. senator in last November's election against Senator Philip Hart.

The word "mesmerism" comes from the theory of hypnotism propounded by Franz Mesmer, an Austrian.

Hoholik Speaks To Achievers

Frank S. Hoholik, president and general manager of the Manistique Pulp and Paper Co. was guest speaker May 5 for the annual junior achievement program in Marquette.

Hoholik said JA members were impressively knowledgeable and that it was a delight to see them interested in the work of the free enterprise system of business.

Development of the economic system through the vassal-serf, craft and modern industrial stages were traced by Hoholik.

Political, social and economic ideologies are 100 years behind the advance of industry and technology, he stated and government controls and infringements on industry make matters worse.

Organizations such as Junior Achievement companies can help develop individuals willing and able to assume leadership roles in political life.

Remodeling Okayed To Enlarge Library

A summer remodeling program costing up to $6,000 was approved by the Manistique Board of Education Tuesday night, to provide more library space.

The girls washroom in the south part of the building will be removed and relocated near the stair wells. The locker area also will be converted to library space.

Plans call for using the south entrance of the school as the library entrance and routing student traffic away from the entrance.

Cost estimates for the project were submitted by Robert Wood of the school staff. A proposal to remodel the front entranceway on Cedar St. was deleted pending study of heating effects by removing inner doors.

The board also approved furtherance of a proposal that Northern Michigan University use the school here as a student teaching center. The district will receive $75 for each student teacher participating from the university. Faculty members of the school are interested in the program, Supt. E. E. Wuehle noted. A local coordinator for the program would be named.

Mrs. Paul Larson was named to represent the board in the Delta - Schoolcraft Intermediate school district election at 8 p. m., June 7.

The school calendar for 1965-66 was approved; bids were asked for boiler insurance. A report of the election canvass was received.

A minimum of 30 has been set for a summer typing program. The course will be self-sustaining.

The district is seeking an English teacher and a music teacher, as replacements, and will need an additional half-time English teacher next year, it was reported.

Approval was given for Mueller Township to send its 7th and 8th grades here next year.

An invitation to E. E. Wuehle from the Department of Public Instruction to participate in a regional meeting in Chicago May 20 on the elementary and secondary education act was approved.

Also approved was appointment of Richard Berger to take the school census and 2-day sick leave pay use for Mrs. Earl LeBrasseur to attend sessions on community schools.

Friday First Clean-Up Day

City residents have been reminded that Friday, May 14, is the first general pick-up day of the annual spring clean-up campaign. City crews will canvass the entire city, in open trucks, and pick up items not normally included in the weekly collection service. Another similar pickup day will follow later this month.

Residents are requested to place items for collection at the curb. All material must be in containers. Loose materials must be tied in bundles not over two feet in diameter. No single item should weigh more than what two men can handle. On special problems the city hall may be called.

Last fall the City Council considered adoption of an anti-bligh ordinance, which made it illegal to store old building materials, machinery, junk cars, piles of scrap lumber, etc., in residential areas. Action on the ordinance was deferred, offering residents an opportunity to get rid of these voluntarily.

If the response is not sufficient on the voluntary basis the ordinance will need to be passed and violation notices issued for eye-sores. Residents are warned that anyone caught dumping trash along the road to the fill will be charged a $100 fine. Police have been instructed to increase visits and patrols of the dump road.

The city is asking that all cooperate to make the campaign a success, so Manistique can put its cleanest foot forward.

Tentative Tax Allocation Set

The preliminary allocation for Schoolcraft County was set at 7:39 mills at a meeting of the Allocation Board Monday night in the courthouse. The intermediate school district levy was set at .11 mills and school districts' from 6.5 to 7.5 mills.

The city allocation for schools was set at 7.5 mills, as was that for Hiawatha and Inwood township schools. Germfask's school was set at 7 mills and others at 6.5 mills.

Township allocations were set at 1 mill for Doyle, Manistique, Mueller, Seney and Thompson, Germfask's at .5 mills. There are none for township governments of Inwood and Hiawatha township.

The next meeting is 7:30 p. m., May 19.

The consensus of the 40 to 50 attending the meeting was that the possibility of levying 18 mills under the new constitution should be pursued.

The Allocation board can petition the county board of supervisors to submit this to a vote of the people.

State millage requirements for state school aid has been increased to nine mills for full participation. County government also needs additional money, it was indicated.

Teens Will Hop To Clean-Up For Michigan Week

For the elegant traditional bride Alfred Angelo designed this gown (left) for an afternoon or formal evening ceremony. In imported organza, styled with the new Sabrina neckline, it has flowing full skirt that wraps to the side. Lace flower applique details the gown and modified train. Bridal bouquet is of white roses and stephanotis. The bridesmaid beautiful complements the bride in style and mood. Pale blue fabric with a silk look (right) flows to the ankle in a soft and easy silhouette. Fred Piccione has designed this gown with a modified bateau neckline, puffed sleeves gleaming with white beads and an Empire-banded waistline. Pink rose tiara matches her pink rose bouquet. Every Bride Should 'Be Herself'

By HELEN HENNESSY
Women's Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK—(NEA)—The type of girl you are should determine the kind of wedding you plan and the gown that will best become you.

Although bridal gowns are floor length this year, almost without exception, there is a bridal fashion for every personality.

Here are some tips from fashion experts on the kind of gown to choose and from (FDT) florists on the type of flowers to carry.

For the girl who is a mixture of old-fashioned charm and modern practicality a small afternoon ceremony is ideal. Her gown should be an easy A-line, with a softly scooped neckline under a simple jacket. The organza train should be removable. Daisies in an old-fashioned round bouquet, will be most flattering.

The demure, reserved bride may prefer a more formal afternoon wedding. Her dress should be a classic, elegant Empire gown, without trim, lovely as the bride in quiet simplicity. Her bouquet might be a graceful cascade of orchids and miniature carnations, accented with a fringe of maple green ivy.

The careful planner is still another personality type. This girl is definite in her likes and dislikes and would delight in a formal night wedding where everything was perfect and proper to the last detail.

Most beautiful of this year's formal wedding gowns has a soft, easy silhouette. A sleeveless bodice of silk satin is teamed with a flowing skirt applied with Alencon lace, beaded with pearls. The final touch is a net coat train that slips over the dress, appliqued and beaded to match the skirt of the dress. A regal cascade of camellia or white orchids is proper for the formal bride.

It is important that you look as natural as possible on your wedding day. So plan your gown, type of ceremony and flowers around your own personality. You will find expert help at the store where you buy your wedding costume and from the florist who will add the final touch of beauty to the way you look.

With a small mortar and pes-tle, grind the celery seed; stir in the remaining ingredients. Sprinkle a suspicion of this seasoning over buttered snap beans, boiled new potatoes or rice; or over greens tossed with salad oil and lemon juice; or on buttered slices of French bread before broiling.

Low Lakes Cut Ship Capacities

SAULT STE. MARIE (AP)—Continuing low water levels have forced most recently-built Great Lakes vessels to operate at less than peak capacity, the International Joint Commission was told Tuesday.

The comment was made by Oliver T. Burnham, vice president of the Lake Carriers' Association. Burnham testified at a hearing here on factors affecting water level fluctuation in the lakes.

Burnham said nearly all recently built ships have navigating drafts that equal or exceed the 25 feet, 6 inches presently available in the St. Lawrence Seaway.

The deepened connecting channels in the Great Lakes—most of which were completed three years ago—would have permitted use of ships with similar dimensions on the lakes, Burnham added.

But lowered water levels have largely offset the benefits of the deepened channels, he added, and vessels with these immersions are unable to use the St. Mary's, St. Clair and Detroit rivers.

Burnham cited the example of one vessel which lost 163,000 tons of iron ore cargo last year because she could load only to the average depth of 24 feet, 4 inches available in the St. Mary's River instead of the average permissible loading of 25 feet, 8 inches under normal water level conditions.

Delays At Soo

Insufficient water depths in the Davis and Sabin locks in the St. Mary Falls canal force many ships to use the deeper MacArthur Lock, and the added traffic brings delays ranging from two to nine hours, Burnham added. He said average operating costs for Great Lakes ships are $150 per hour.

Burnham urged the commission members to study the feasibility of flow retarding programs—such as installation of underwater weirs at the head of the St. Clair River—and the availability of additional inflow volume, such as is provided by the Long Lac and Ogoki River diversions into Lake Superior.

Sales Of Shad Making Money

SAUGATUCK (AP)—A commercial fishing group here is turning a profit on the lowly shad, once sneered at as inedible and a cause of nasal discomfort when millions of their dead float onto area beaches.

The Southern Lake Michigan Fisherman Co-op has been netting the pest fish and selling it for $35 per ton to pet food processors.

Spokesmen say it also can be processed into fertilizer, high protein baking flour and paint oil. One Canadian firm reportedly has developed a pickling process that softens the bone to make shad into "kippered herring."

Keith Chambers, a Co-op spokesman, said business is booming after three years of rough going in developing equipment, technique and a market. The State Conservation Department in the past would not allow trawlers to operate in the Great Lakes but Co-op members now run trawlers under a special exploratory permit.

The shad has been in the Great Lakes about 10 years, arriving from the ocean through the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Besides fouling Lake Michigan beaches through die-off and clogging municipal water intake lines, the shad has been spurned by commercial fishermen who claim that it eats food formerly sought by more valuable fish species.

The Conservation Department predicts, however, that the shad will become a major item on the menu of lake trout once that species recovers from lamprey depredation.

Sleepy Season Arrives On TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Network television's sleepy season arrived Tuesday night with a traditional harbinger—the premier of what the publicists call a "summer series," and the trade calls a "package deal."

To viewers with long memories, NBC's "Cloak of Mystery" was an old package in a new wrapping. It was a half-hour program starring Simone Signoret and Lee Marvin which this viewer remembers vaguely from five seasons back.

Non-memorable dramatic entertainment is quickly forgotten and this little suspense tale was a frail bark when new. However, it is always interesting to watch Miss Signoret.

Within a couple of weeks, most evening television will consist of reruns from the past season and other seasons before that. These oft-told tales pop up like dandelions in warm weather because it is less expensive to make 30-odd episodes a year than 52 and because people are reputed to watch less television when the outdoors call.

Johnson Asks Pay Increases

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson has asked Congress to give pay increases costing $853 million a year to military personnel and federal white-collar workers.

Johnson, in a special message, proposed a three per cent across-the-board pay raise for all civil service workers, postal employees and members of the foreign service.

The only ones within the executive branch excluded from the proposed increase would be the top policymaking officials and some 600,000 blue-collar workers whose pay already is geared to prevailing wages in the communities where they are based.

For military personnel who have had at least two years of service, an average increase of 4.8 per cent in total compensation—base pay plus allowances and fringe benefits—was proposed. Enlisted men who have served less than two years would get an increase averaging 2.7 per cent.

In another major proposal, Johnson asked Congress to authorize a government wide salary review every four years that would compare federal pay with compensation offered by private industry.

The project is aimed at helping children with limited economic and cultural backgrounds before they enter school next fall.

If all the projects are accepted, they will operate through 512 different centers and provide more than 16,750 pre-schoolers with a head start on their education.

The Michigan program would cost $2.96 million, $2.51 million to come from the federal government and $446,755 from local resources. Applicants include 83 local public school systems, four intermediate school districts, one parochial school and one community council.

Michigan's New Driver Licenses To Be In Color

LANSING (AP)—The first of 48 new color-photo cameras to produce the new Michigan driver license have been installed at the Lansing Police Department.

Drivers obtaining new licenses and renewals can expect to receive their new color licenses by late May or early June, said Secretary of State James Hare.

Drivers will still come up for license renewals every three years, on their birthdays, and it probably will be mid-1968 before all of Michigan's more than 4 million drivers will have the new licenses.

Student Wins In District 24

DETROIT (AP) — Democrat James Del Rio, 41-year-old former real estate dealer now studying for the law, was elected Monday to the state representative post earlier denied to Democrat Daniel West, admitted masquerader.

Del Rio, victor in a three-man race, was named in a special election to the Michigan House from the 24th legislative district. This was the seat denied by the House to twice-elected former Rep. West after his admission to state investigators that he used the reputation of another man.

Del Rio defeated Republican

Robert L. Jordan, 58, a church pastor, and Jackie Wilson, 34, candidate of the Freedom Now party, in a light vote in the traditionally Democratic district. Unofficial results from 35 of the district's 37 precincts gave Del Rio 1,361 votes to Jordan's 994 and Wilson's 75. Election officials said the turnout was about 2,400 from the district's 22,803 registered voters.

Sixteen Schools Entered

Track Regional Here Saturday

Athletes from 16 schools will compete in the annual regional track and field meet at the Escanaba High School athletic field Saturday.

At stake, in addition to the regional championships, will be the right to advance to the Upper Peninsula finals which will be staged May 22 at Houghton. Only athletes who qualify in the regionals are eligible to advance to the U.P. finals.

Competition will be in three classes. Schools in the A-B division will be Escanaba, Holy Name, Gladstone and Menominee. Entered in Class C will be Gwinn, Marquette Baraga, Norway and Stephenson. Making up the Class D field will be Cooks, Felch, Garden, Bark River-Harris, Nahma, Perkins, Rapid River and Rock.

Action will begin at 10 a.m. with finals in several field events. Preliminaries in the running events also will be staged in the morning. The afternoon session will begin at 1 p.m.

Shot Put Change
Meet director Harold Johnson announced that the Class A-B shot put finals will be delayed until the afternoon session to allow spectators to witness the event which is expected to be a highlight of the meet.

Johnson today announced the officials who will head the working staff. William Cook of Manistique is the referee, Thor Reque of Manistique the starter, Bob Thibault the clerk, Ken Peterson scorer, Jerry Anzalone recorder and Steve Baltic in charge of medals. Elwood Slade is chief timer, John Prokos chief judge.

For the first time in years, the regional here will not include Kingsford or Marquette, two of the Upper Peninsula's perennial track powers. It would appear that the battle for the Class A-B crown Saturday will be between Gladstone and Escanaba teams. They finished neck-and-neck behind Sault Ste. Marie in the Great Lakes Conference meet at Manistique Saturday.

Rapid River Favored
In Class D, Coach Bernie Olson's Rapid River Rockets are favored to retain their regional championship with the strongest challenge coming from the Garden Jets.

Several outstanding duels among individual athletes are anticipated. Eskymo Bill Sarnowski and Jim Hansen have been creating a stir among Upper Peninsula track observers with their tremendous tosses in the shot put. Sarnowski is the current Upper Peninsula champion and owns a new Escanaba school record of 54 feet 4 1/4 inches. Hansen has a mark of 54 feet 3 1/2 inches to his credit. A third Eskymo, Steve Johnson, has topped 48 feet.

Another tight battle is expected in the sprints where Mike Gobert of Gladstone and Gary Vandeville of Escanaba are a toss-up. Each has been clocked in 10.5 in the 100 and Vandeville has a 23.8 in the 220.

Joe Dessart of Menominee is the cream of the crop of quartermilers in the meet. The Menominee ironman has a 52.8 clocking this spring. Jim Johnson of Escanaba and Manuel Romillo of Holy Name have been around the 54.6 mark.

The mile could develop into a duel between Gary Englund of Gladstone and Tom Duchaine of Escanaba. Both have been under 4:50 this season and Englund topped the field in the Great Lakes meet last week.

Good Hurdle Field
The hurdle races are wide open with such standouts as Rick Ebbesen of Gladstone, Jim Boyle and Tom Bjorkquist of Escanaba and Mike Kidd of Holy Name the leading contenders.

Ray Anderson and Paul Miller of Escanaba have battled all year for top honors in the high jump with Anderson setting a new school record at 5 feet 10 3/4 inches.

Bob Brisco of Holy Name has turned in the best heights in the pole vault.

Twins Retain First Place In AL Race

By The Associated Press
That was no pop-gun Harmon Killebrew used on the Angels the second time around.

The Minnesota slugger beat Los Angeles 4-3 Wednesday night with his second home run of the game, a 450-foot, two-run shot in the eighth inning. The night before he had given the Twins a 3-2 victory over the Angels by caroming a drive off pitcher Dean Chance's leg in the ninth to send home the winning run.

The victory, fifth straight for the Twins and 16th in 23 starts this year, kept them in first place in the young American League race, one-half game ahead of the Chicago White Sox, who swept a two-night double-header from Kansas City 7-4 and 6-4. Boston blanked the New York Yankees 2-0. Detroit topped Washington 5-2 and Baltimore beat Cleveland 4-2 in other night action.

Killebrew's decisive homer off Angel reliever Bob Lee cleared Frank Kostro, who had walked, and pulled the Twins from behind. Killebrew had ripped a left-field circuit clout off rookie southpaw Rudy May, the Angels' starter, in the sixth.

The homers were the fourth and fifth for Harmon in his last 11 games after an anemic start. Killebrew led the majors with 49 homers last year and has led the league three straight seasons.

Los Angeles built a 3-2 edge going into the eighth on Albie Pearson's first-inning homer. Jose Cardenal's third-inning sacrifice fly and a run-scoring single by Joe Adcock — the 1,700th major league hit for the veteran first baseman — in the sixth. Jerry Kindall singled home the first Minnesota run in the third.

Pete Ward's two-run homer in the seventh inning of the Chicago-Kansas City opener put the White Sox ahead to stay 5-4. Dick Green had put the A's on top with a grand-slam homer in the fifth.

Don Buford, who also homered for the Sox in the first game, singled in one run and Floyd Robinson's pop-fly single delivered another in a sixth-inning rally that decided the nightcap. The Kansas City runs came on a three-run homer by Jim Gentile and Bill Bryan's solo shot.

Bill Monbouquette stopped New York on six hits and shortstop Eddie Bressoud hit a fifth-inning home run as the Red Sox beat Yankee ace Jim Bouton. Frank Malzone collected three of the five Boston hits and Lee Thomas singled in the other run in the sixth.

Speedster Mike Gobert was a double winner for the Braves in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Other Gladstone winners were Jim Carlson in the shot, Gary Englund in the mile, Carl Norokoli in the half mile and Rick Ebbesen in the low hurdles, in addition to both relay units.

Holy Name individual winners were Mike O'Leary in the high jump, Bob Brisco in the pole vault, Bill Menard in the long jump.

Taking firsts for Manistique were Darryl Carlson in the 440

In This Corner with Ray Crandall

The Stephenson Eagles, who face Escanaba in baseball at the Al Ness Field here today, got off to an unsuccessful start this season by bowing to Kingsford, 5-1. Tom Johnson pitched the victory, allowing only two hits, fanning nine batsmen and granting four bases on balls. The Eskymos will be seeking their first triumph after bowing to Norway, 2-1, earlier this week.

The Soo Blue Devils showed neighboring Soo Loretto why they rule the Great Lakes Conference in track when the schools met in a dual affair this week. Soo took 11 firsts and scored in every event, sweeping the high jump, pole vault, mile, half mile and 120 yard high hurdles. Brad Shouldice was a triple winner in the highs, lows and high jump. Sprinter Bob VanKirk tried his hand at the half mile and won it in 2:10.1.

Coach Web Morrison's Pickford Panthers were up to their old tricks in a triangular meet with St. Ignace and Cedarville this week. The team that has won 13 straight Upper Peninsula Class D crowns placed first in 12 of the 15 events and scored 95 points while St. Ignace picked up 46 and Cedarville 12. Roger Hewer paced the Panthers by winning the high and low hurdles and the shot put. Quarter miler Bob Huyce won his specialty in 53.6 seconds.

Two more Upper Peninsula conference champions were crowned in track meets staged this week. Republic captured its third straight Mid-Peninsula championship by piling up 73 points to 30 for runnerup Champion. The Dillon brothers, Charles and Paul, teamed up to win the 100 yard dash, 220 yard dash, broad jump, high hurdles and low hurdles and ran on both the winning relay teams for Republic.

Pembine edged Channing by two points, 81-79, in a battle for the Big Seven Conference title in a meet run off at Iron Mountain. Individual star of the meet was Paul Peak of Channing who set new records in the hurdles, stepping the highs in 15.6 and the lows in 22.2. Peak is the fastest high hurdler in the Upper Peninsula this season, regardless of class, and his best time in the lows has been matched only by Brad Shouldice of Sault Ste. Marie, a Class A school.

Gladstone Wins Triangular Meet

MANISTIQUE — Coach Bob Richards' Gladstone Braves flexed their track and field muscles here Wednesday to take top honors in a triangular meet with Manistique and Holy Name.

The Braves ran off with eight firsts and scored points in every event to finish with 63 1/2, far ahead of runnerup Manistique with 39 1/2. Holy Name was third with 34.

Performances were hampered in most events by strong, gusty winds and cold temperatures.

Speedster Mike Gobert was a double winner for the Braves in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Other Gladstone winners were Jim Carlson in the shot, Gary Englund in the mile, Carl Norokoli in the half mile and Rick Ebbesen in the low hurdles, in addition to both relay units.

Softball Campaign Will Begin Sunday

The Escanaba Softball Association will open the 1965 season with a doubleheader Sunday night at Memorial Field.

The Sunday double bill will kick off the campaign for nine teams, all competing in one league this year.

Meeting in the 6:30 opener will be Bero Motors and Flat Rock. Tangle in the nightcap under the lights will be Hamms-Merchants, the defending league champion, and Mead No. 1.

Other teams set to swing into action in league games Monday through Thursday nights are Skinny's Bar, Teamsters, Hall

Insurance, Mead No. 3 and Michigan Hotel-Piggly Wiggly. It is possible that one more team will be admitted into the league, President Bill Rodman of the association announced today.

A final workbee Tuesday night put Memorial Field into playing condition with the outfield fence erected, the backstop repaired and patched and the grounds cleaned and groomed. A city work crew put the finishing touches on the diamond Wednesday.

The regular league season will be highlighted by three tournaments this year.

The second annual Escanaba Invitational will be staged over the July 4th weekend. The annual City championship tournament will be staged over two weekends, July 17-18 and 24-25. And the district championship tournaments will be held here early in August.

For the Sunday night opener, Hamms-Merchants will field a veteran team with either Bob Corriveau or Bill McGovern on the mound. Todd Butler will handle pitching chores for Mead No. 1.

Bero's will call on Dale Bitter to toe the slab while Billy or Ron Smith is expected to go for Flat Rock.

Michigan Ends Detroit String

ANN ARBOR (AP)—Michigan, No. 1 baseball team the Big Ten, snapped Detroit's ten-game winning streak Wednesday, defeating the Titans 6-1.

Bill Wahl started on the mound for the Wolverines, hurling four innings of hitless ball until relieved by winning pitcher Marlin Pemberton in the fifth.

Pemberton allowed the only two Detroit hits — singles by Cliff Rothrock in the sixth and eighth innings.

Michigan's entire lineup batted in the five-run second inning, scoring on an error, three walks and two singles.

Wolverine shortstop Bob Gilhooley was the big man at the plate in the pitcher's contest, getting two hits, a stolen base, scoring twice and batting in one run.

George Mach took the loss for Detroit. The Titans are 17-4 for the season and Michigan is 16-9.

Slimmer Torre Waves Fat Bat For Milwaukee

By The Associated Press
A couple of years ago the only thing slim about Joe Torre was his chance of making the majors.

Now, however, the only thing fat about the Milwaukee catcher is his batting average and the offer the Braves turned down for his services.

Torre lifted his average to .347 Wednesday night with a homer and a single, helping Milwaukee to a 5-4 victory over Pittsburgh while continuing to show why the Braves refused the New York Mets' offer to buy him for $500,000.

As a teen-ager with his eyes on the majors, Torre was in jeopardy of being overlooked by major league scouts, which would have been quite an accomplishment since he weighed 240 pounds and lacked speed.

Speed of foot still isn't Torre's main dish, but it's hard to fault a guy who trimmed his weight to 205 and last season lifted his average to .321 with 20 homers and 109 runs batted in. And this year's current .347 average goes along with seven homers and 14 RBIs.

While Torre was continuing his heavy hitting, Ron Santo belted a homer and two singles in the Chicago Cubs' 7-3 wallowing of San Francisco, Cincinnati edged Philadelphia 4-3, the Los Angeles Dodgers defeated Houston 4-2 and the New York Mets downed St. Louis 2-1.

Torre hit his homer in the fourth inning against the Pirates, pulling the Braves into a 2-2 tie they cracked with a three-run seventh-inning uprising.

Senate Rejects Public Prayers

LANSING (AP) — The Senate rejected amidst debate and grumbling Wednesday a proposal that the U.S. Constitution specifically authorize prayer at public events.

A resolution asking Congress to propose such an amendment found only 10 votes although 21 senators originally had signed it. Fifteen senators voted "no" and 13 abstained.

"I stand mortified at the gentlemen who oppose this resolution," thundered its chief sponsor, Sen. Bernard O'Brien, D-Detroit. "When you start taking prayer out of this country you better pack up and leave."

Sen. Roger Craig, D-Deerborn, retaliated that "some of us have a right to be offended when we are put opposite God and Sen. O'Brien puts himself on the side of the angels."

Sen. Milton Zaagman, R-Grand Rapids, declared that one purpose in every anti-public prayer court suit "is to wipe God out of every public meeting. We as a Christian nation should fight for what we believe in."

But Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit, said the resolution "at the least is a slap at the U.S. Supreme Court. We are not qualified to second-guess the court."

The court has ruled against use of mandatory prescribed prayers in public schools.

Young said "many conservative groups are trying to discredit the court. I'm afraid the entry of the Michigan Legislature into this matter would support those backward-looking groups."

Craig and Sen. Gerald Dunn, D-Flushing, declared that churches in their districts opposed such a resolution or amendment.

O'Brien challenged them "to look again."

Police said the respondents, identified as Calvin College students, were in a group which raced through Hope men's dormitories and set fire to portions of an athletic field.

Municipal Judge John Galien suspended the jail sentences on condition that the respondents refrain from further violation of the disorderly conduct code.

Forests Posting Fee Use Areas

The new annual $7 federal recreation - conservation auto sticker, or a seasonal ticket fee of $2.50 good for one national forest, or a daily entry fee of 50 cents, will be required at 86 designated campgrounds in 11 national forests in the North Central Region, Regional Forester George S. James announces.

The forests are in Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Ohio, and Wisconsin.

Nationwide, the $7 sticker admits the holder and all occupants of his car, regardless of their ages, to designated recreation areas in national forests, national parks, and other federal recreation areas. It is effective from April 1 this year to March 31, 1966. There is no limit to the number of times it can be used.

In this region, a $2.50 season ticket can be used instead of the $7 annual sticker. It is available for entry to designated campgrounds only in the national forest where it was purchased. All campers should have one if they are 16 or older. It can be used any number of times during the camping season.

A single-entry fee of 50 cents per person 16 or older is available for those who do not possess the annual sticker or the seasonal ticket. This is for one daily visit to any one of the 86 campgrounds.

There are many campgrounds in the Region's National Forests where no fees are charged. A sign will indicate where entry fees are required: Federal Recreation/Conservation Stickers Honored Here.

The annual stickers are now on sale in Forest Service offices. They will be effective in this region on May 15.

"The Land and Water Conservation Fund Act," added James, "provides that receipts from the sale of the annual sticker will be deposited in the Land and Water Conservation Fund. Following Congressional appropriations, the funds will be used to assist municipalities, counties and states in planning, acquiring, and developing recreation areas. Also, they will assist the purchase of additional federal recreation areas."

In this region, collections from the seasonal and the daily fees will be assimilated into the annual collections realized on each National Forest. These annual collections, for example, are derived from special-use fees and timber sales. Twenty-five per cent of the annual receipts are given to the state in which the national forest is located. The state, in turn, apportions the 25 per cent refund among the counties containing National Forest lands.

In the Hiawatha National Forest in the eastern Upper Peninsula single visit entrance fee of 50 cents per person will be charged at the Corner Lake, Monocle Lake, Brevoort Lake, Camp 7 Lake, Colwell Lake, Petes Lake, Widewaters, Lake Michigan, Foley Creek, Carp River, Soldier Lake, Bay View and Three lakes areas, and campsite daily use fees of $1 at Monocle Lake, Brevoort Lake and Lake Michigan areas.

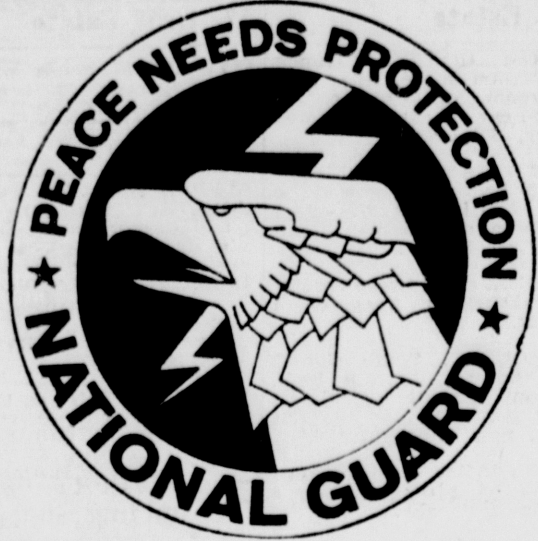

At the Ottawa National Forest in the western U.P. entrance fees will be charged at the Golden Lake, Imp Lake, Kidney Lake, Lake Ottawa, Marion Lake, Norway Lake, Perch Lake and Taylor Lake areas, but no campsite charges will be made.

The annual Farm Bureau Queen's contest will be held in June. A contestant must be the daughter of a Farm Bureau member, and must be 17 and under 21 to participate. Judging will be done on Tuesday, June 29 at a County Farm Bureau meeting.

In other business a County Farm Bureau picnic will be held at Shaky Lake with the date still undecided. The Menominee County Farm Bureau Women's Committee participates in a State Scholarship

National Guard Plans Display

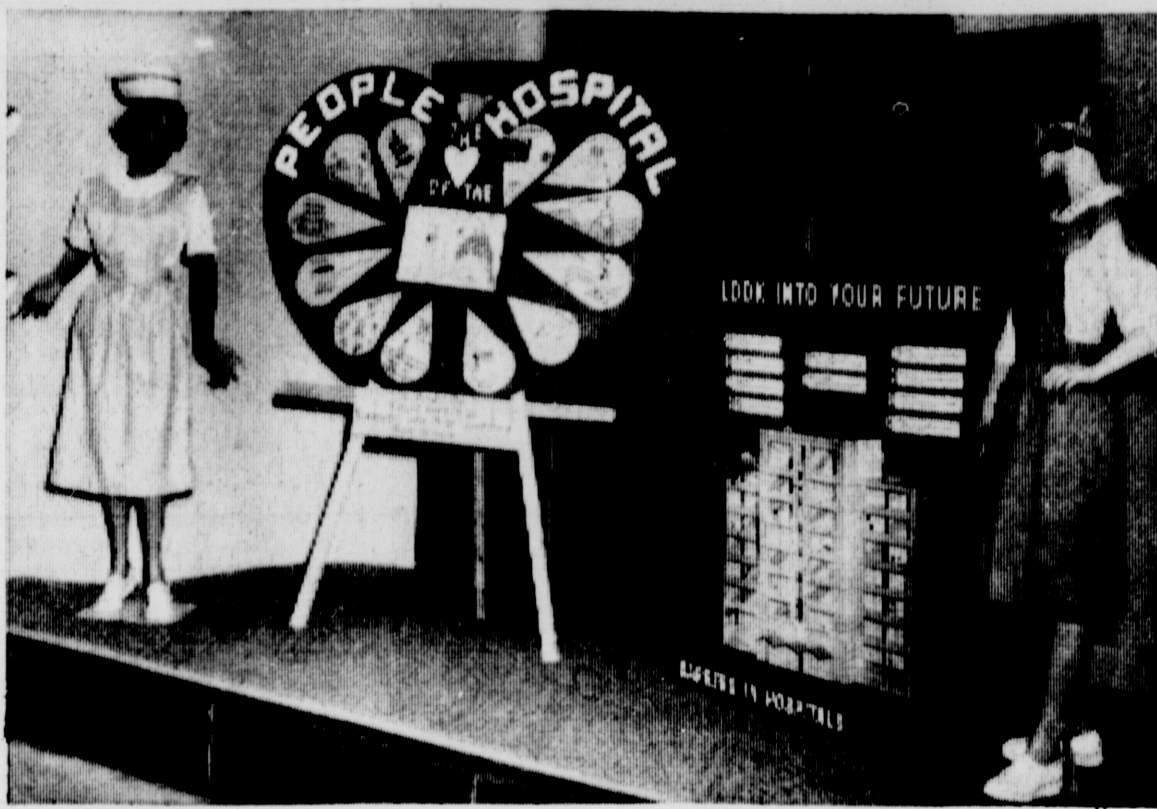

With the national theme of "Power For Peace," Company E of the 107th Engineers, Michigan National Guard, will join with other units of the State in observing Armed Forces Day.

Company E has planned an equipment display to show the public the great variety of equipment and training needed to prepare a bridge company for combat operations. With only four of the units different types of equipment to be on display, Capt. George Anderson, unit commander, said this will be in excess of $90,000 worth of combat power.

Sgt. Ivan Gagne of Powers is project NCO of the units display, with assistance from Sgts. Wopick, Bark River, Thomas Elegreet, Escanaba, and Specialists Wayne Berthume, and Leonard Ford of Escanaba and Gladstone, Rte. 1.

On Friday the display will be at the corner of S. 14th and Ludington St. from 5 to 9 p.m. On Saturday the display will be in the parking lot next to the Gladstone Armory from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Guardsmen will be on duty to explain the uses of the equipment within the company and to answer questions of young men about enlistment in the National Guard, and questions from the general public.

Skipper Of Lost Ship Testifies

ST. IGNACE (AP)—The captain of the sunken freighter Cedarville testified at a Coast Guard inquiry Wednesday and later refused to answer additional questions about the collision of his ship and the Norwegian freighter Toppalsford.

Capt. Martin Joppich, on the advice of his attorney Roman Keenan, cited the Fifth amendment to the U.S. Constitution as the basis for his refusal to answer questions put to him by Joseph Keig Jr., attorney for the owners of the Norwegian freighter.

After completing testimony to Coast Guard investigators, Joppich was asked by Keig to draw a diagram of the pilothouse of the Cedarville. Keenan told the court, "We have instructed the captain not to answer any other questions and particularly he will not waive his rights as far as any foreign vessel is concerned."

Keig asked no further questions.

Joppich told the Coast Guard board he reduced the speed of his vessel to half-speed about 12 miles from the point where it

Legislature To Call Shot For Highway Signs

The Upper Peninsula's long contest with the State Highway Department over roadside business signs entered a new era Wednesday with announcement by the Michigan State Supreme Court that a 1925 law giving the Highway Department power to remove advertising boards from highway right-of-way is unconstitutional.

The court in a unanimous ruling held that the law gave the state highway commissioner the power to discriminate at will and that the highway commissioner acted not under power granted by the Michigan Legislature but under federally promulgated "policies and procedures requiring removal of all advertising signs from all federally aided highways."

Atty. Arthur Neiman of the firm of Hansley & Neiman which carried circuit court actions in the sign controversy to the State Supreme Court for two appellants from Delta and Alger counties, said that its action should clear the way for an orderly development of a highway signing system which will not destroy the esthetic qualities of the state's highways and which will not penalize the businessman dependent upon highway signs for business.

Old Controversy
The highway sign controversy is an old one in the Upper Peninsula. It has brought many collisions between recreation business owners and the State Highway Department. The Upper Michigan Tourist Association has taken an active role because it reports that U.P. tourist establishments have been injured by the state's highway sign policy.

The Highway Department sent out letters last June notifying owners that highway signs not conforming with its regulations would be removed by it. Suits were filed against the Highway Department by Hansley & Neiman for injunctions to balk action in sign removal and to settle the controversy.

Affected was a sign at Walter A. O'Brien's Birch Creek Motel, at Bay View Location north of Escanaba, and a sign of Donald A. Froberg at his motel at Christmas Location near Munising.

Circuit Judges George S. Baldwin of Alger and Bernard Davidson of Delta held for the state in the cases and the appeals followed.

There were similar sign cases in Marquette, Dickinson and Schoolcraft counties and some earlier cases pending in Mackinac County.

Controls Possible
The Supreme Court said that the Legislature, as it considers two bills to "regulate" roadside advertising devices and another to "limit" control by the Highway Department of trunkline rights-of-way, should note that legislatively adjudged sign nuisances cited in the precedents affected both highway safety and esthetics.

The court in the opinion written by Justice Eugene
